

SHANE STEVENS

(singer/songwriter/vocal producer/artist development)

Born in Myrtle Beach, South Carolina, Grammy and ACM nominated (2022) songwriter Shane Stevens, grew up in a house filled with country, pop, R&B, Christian, and beach music. In 1996, he moved to Nashville with his best friend and co-writer Karyn Rochelle to fulfill his dream of becoming a professional songwriter.

Shane achieved his first Billboard #1 on the Hot Country Songs chart in 2010 with "American Honey," performed by Lady A and co-written with Hillary Lindsey and Cary Barlowe.

Shane's most recent accolades include writing Walker Hayes' 2021 singles "Fancy Like" and "Make You Cry", "Crazy For You" by Universal Japan's rising pop star Mizki and selling a Country music musical movie to Paramount Pictures in 2019 where Shane was responsible for writing all original compositions associated with the musical alongside childhood friend Karyn Rochelle.

Shane currently shares his time between Nashville and LA.
